

Little Red Riding Hood

You are learning to write an argument.

Fill out this template with points that support either the guilt or innocence of each character in relation to how responsible they were for Red's death.

Your task will then be to argue your point of view against others in the class to attempt to convince the District Attorney (Mr. Lamb) to:

- Charge one of the characters or assign responsibility posthumously to Red or Granny

	Little Red Riding	The Mother	The Woodcutter(s)	The Wolf	Granny
Reasons for being guilty What did they do wrong? What evidence or facts do you have to support it? Prove it!	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She wasn't very smart She told the wolf where to go She ignored the woodcutters She had it coming She gave away too many details to a stranger 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Neglected her daughter She sent Red on her own knowing that the woods were dangerous She didn't give her proper instructions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> They didn't take responsibility for a lone child in the woods (they could have followed her) They prioritised work over child safety 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> He ate her He has been known to attack and eat people before He stalked her with intent to commit a crime 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She got sick in the first place and required a visitor
Reasons for being not guilty. Why did they do it? What counter opinion can you suggest? Give an opposite view point!	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She never said to go through the woods 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> He warned her to go home and even offered to take her home 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> He was just hungry It was just his animal instinct to kill and eat 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She is old and sick and can't have known what was going to happen
